

OEXA 82-2015

26 AUG 1982

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

VIA: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: Director, Office of External Affairs

SUBJECT: International Exchange Program

mc

1. Action Requested: That you approve Senator Charles McC. Mathias' (R., MD) request for a Luncheon meeting with you at Headquarters with Senator Jim Sasser (D., TN), Dr. Daniel Boorstin, Library of Congress, Eugene Rostow, Director of the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, and Bob Gates, DDI, for the purpose of briefing Senator Sasser on the benefits the Agency derives from the International Exchange Program (IEP).

2. Background:

a. The International Exchange Program (44 U.S.C. Sec. 1719, Tab A) provides the Library of Congress with official Government documents from all nations of the world in exchange for U.S. Government publications. The recipient of the Program is the Library of Congress who administers it in cooperation with the Smithsonian Institution and the Government Printing Office. The Program has had recurring funding problems in the past few years (see memorandum, Tab B) and Congress has also questioned parts of it by proposing in the Conte Amendment (96th Congress) to prohibit the U.S. Government from engaging in any Government document exchange program with the USSR, Cuba, and Iran. The former DCI, Admiral Turner, in a memorandum of 26 September 1980 to Representative Conte (Tab C) went on record against his Amendment. The DDI, then D/NFAC, also alerted the Legislative Counsel about the dangers of the Conte Amendment in a 7 August 1980 memorandum (Tab D).

b. The threat posed by the "Conte Amendment" in the 96th Congress is aptly described in paragraphs 2 and 3 of the memorandum attached at Tab D. Arguably, the same concerns would manifest themselves should the funding problems not be resolved.

c. Senator Mathias, Vice Chairman of the Joint Committee on the Library, is asking our assistance in attempting to convince Senator Sasser of the need for the Program to continue, however funded. Senator Sasser, who sits on the Appropriations, Budget and Governmental Affairs Committees apparently is objecting to the Program being an item in the legislative budget. Senator Mathias, on the other hand, would like to see the Library of Congress take over responsibility for the Program, vice the Smithsonian. The Library of Congress has no objection to this. Such a change in responsibility may entail legislation to amend 44 U.S.C. Sec. 1719.

3. Recommendation: That you agree to the requested luncheon meeting and ask the DDI to be present to brief Messrs. Mathias, Sasser, Rostow and Boorstin.
